FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stussy Fundraiser to Help AVPA

Culver City, CA, October 26, 2006

Culver City High School's Academy of Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA) is hosting a parking lot sale for the trendy clothing manufacturer, Stussy, Inc. on Saturday, November 4, between 10am and 2pm at the parking lot of El Rincon Elementary School (corner of Overland and Sawtelle in Culver City).

Stussy will be there with their complete line of pants, hats, t-shirts, sweatshirts, bags and more. They'll also have DC, Adio, Globe and other name-brand shoes as well as Paul Frank, Spy Eyewear and World Industries. Everything will be sold at 50% or more off retail prices.

Stussy, Inc., an Irvine based company, shows its support for students in the community by partnering with school-based organizations for fund-raising sales. A percentage of all proceeds go to the student organization that helps put on the event. This year, the earnings from the Stussy fundraiser will benefit the entire Academy.

According to AVPA Foundation president, Steve Wallace, "We're looking forward to continued success with our Stussy fundraiser. Last year people stocked up on holiday gift items at the sale and we benefited. This year the AVPA Foundation is looking forward to helping support the Academy's academic offerings with the funds we earn."

The Academy of Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA) at Culver City High School offers a comprehensive arts curriculum after regular school hours for students who are committed to excellence in Art, Film, Theatre, Dance, and Music. Established in 1996, AVPA enjoys tremendous community support from Sony Pictures Entertainment and other design, recording, and theatre companies in the area.
