AVPA Hosts It's Fall Stussy Fundraiser

For immediate release:

Culver City – October 25, 2007: Who doesn't love the deals at a parking lot sale? Culver City High School's Academy of Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA) is hosting a sale for the trendy clothing manufacturer, Stussy, Inc. on Saturday, November 3, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the parking lot of El Rincon Elementary School (corner of Overland and Sawtelle in Culver City).

Stussy will be there with their complete line of pants, hats, t-shirts, sweatshirts, bags and more. They'll also have DC, Adio, Globe and other name-brand shoes as well as Paul Frank, Blind and World Industries. Everything is 50% or more off retail prices.

Based in Irvine, Stussy, Inc. shows its support for students in the community by partnering with school-based organizations for fund-raising sales. A percentage of all proceeds go to the student organization that helps put on the event. Earnings from this Stussy fundraiser will benefit all departments within AVPA.

According to Tony Spano, Co Executive Director of AVPA, "Without successful fundraisers like the Stussy sale, we wouldn't be able to offer our students our exceptional arts-based programming. With students and parents from all departments helping with the event, it's an opportunity for us all to work together to help ensure our future. And we encourage the public to come on the 3rd and shop. It's a great opportunity to buy holiday gifts as well as add special items to your own wardrobe."

About the Academy of Visual and Performing Arts

The Academy of Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA) at Culver City High School has been inspiring and empowering students to build a compassionate, creative community through innovative and challenging arts education since 1996. AVPA enjoys tremendous support from Sony Pictures Entertainment and other area businesses as well as from the Culver City community.
