AVPA Hosts Stussy Skate Shoe and Outlet Sale

For immediate release:

Culver City – April 3, 2008: It's time for some serious shopping. Culver City High School's Academy of Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA) is hosting a sale for the trendy clothing manufacturer, Stussy, Inc. on Saturday, April 12, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the parking lot of El Rincon Elementary School (corner of Overland and Sawtelle in Culver City).

Stussy will unload their trucks with their complete line of pants, hats, t-shirts, sweatshirts, bags and more. They'll also have DC, Adio, Globe and other name-brand shoes as well as Paul Frank, Blind and World Industries. Everything is 50% or more off retail prices.

Stussy, Inc., an Irvine based company, shows its support for students in the community by partnering with school-based organizations for fund-raising sales. Earnings from this Stussy fundraiser will benefit all departments within the AVPA.

According to Susan Bronstein, AVPA parent volunteer coordinating the event, "We look forward to continued success with our Stussy fundraiser. Everyone benefits. The public gets a head start on summer shopping at wholesale prices, while AVPA students and their parents work together raising funds for all their AVPA projects."

The next AVPA project is the Dance Department's spring dance concert, "A Matter of Opinion". The concert will be held on April 17 and 18 at 7pm and on April 19 at 3pm in the Robert Frost Auditorium, 4401 Elenda Street, in Culver City. Admission is $10 general and $7 ASB, faculty, seniors and children under 12. Put on your Stussy clothes and join us at the dance concert.

About the Academy of Visual and Performing Arts

The Academy of Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA) at Culver City High School has been inspiring and empowering students to build a compassionate, creative community through innovative and challenging arts education since 1996. AVPA enjoys tremendous support from Sony Pictures Entertainment and other area businesses as well as from the Culver City community.
