AVPA Hosts Stussy Skate Shoe and Outlet Sale

For immediate release:

Culver City – April 16, 2009: It's time for some serious shopping. Culver City High School's Academy of Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA) is hosting a sale for the trendy clothing manufacturer, Stussy, Inc. on Saturday, April 25, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the parking lot of El Rincon Elementary School (corner of Overland and Sawtelle in Culver City).

Stussy will unload their trucks with their complete line of pants, hats, t-shirts, sweatshirts, bags and more. They'll also have DC, Adio, Globe and other name-brand shoes as well as Paul Frank, Blind and World Industries. Everything is 50% or more off retail prices.

Stussy, Inc., an Irvine based company, shows its support for students in the community by partnering with school-based organizations for fund-raising sales. Earnings from this Stussy fundraiser will benefit all five AVPA departments—Art, Dance, Film, Music and Theater.

According to Susan Bronstein, AVPA parent volunteer coordinating the event, "We look forward to continued success with our Stussy fundraiser. Everyone benefits. The public gets a head start on summer shopping at wholesale prices, while AVPA students and their parents work together raising funds for all their AVPA projects."

AVPA rounds out the school year with the following projects: Spring Dance Concert on April 30 through May 2. Java Gala at Robert Frost Auditorium on Friday, May 22 (tickets $30 through May 1, $35 after May 1 and $40 at the door). Spring Music Concert on Wednesday, May 27. And the Spring Film Premiere at Sony Pictures

Studios on Friday, June 12. As the dates approach, ticket information is available at www.avpa.org.
