AVPA Hosts Stussy Fundraiser

For immediate release:

Culver City – October 29, 2009: Culver City High School's Academy of Visual and Performing Arts (AVPA) is hosting a parking lot sale for the trendy clothing manufacturer, Stussy, Inc. on Saturday, November 7, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the parking lot of El Rincon Elementary School (corner of Sawtelle and Overland in Culver City).

Stussy will be there with their complete line of pants, hats, t-shirts, sweatshirts, bags and more. They'll also have DC, Adio, Globe and other name-brand shoes as well as Paul Frank, World Industries, Blind and Planet Earth. Everything is 50% or more off retail prices.

Stussy, Inc., an Irvine based company, shows its support for students in the community by partnering with school-based organizations for fund-raising sales. Earnings from this Stussy fundraiser will benefit all five departments within the AVPA—Art, Dance, Film, Music and Theatre.

Tony Spano, Co-Executive Director of AVPA says, "While everyone is facing difficult financial times, it is because of fundraisers like this that allow our arts education program to thrive. By buying discount clothing and other items for yourself, you are directly supporting the students in activities they truly enjoy."

The next AVPA project is the Theatre Department's production of "The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby". The play runs from Thursday, November 12 through Sunday, November 22 at Sony Pictures Theatre behind the Frost (The Blackbox), 4401 Elenda Street, in Culver City. Ticket information is available at www.avpa.org or www.tix.com.
